Here comes the abstract of your contribution.

We are pleased to announce the Third International Symposium on Nuclear Symmetry Energy (NuSYM13) will be held on July 22-26, 2013 at the National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory, NSCL/FRIB, East Lansing, Michigan, USA.

If you are interested to give a presentation (oral or poster), please submit an abstract at our website [1].

For more information of this symposium, please visit the NuSYM13 home page [2].
